

Graduate Student Funding

Federal Direct Loans

Unsubsidized Direct Loan

UCSB participates in the Federal Direct Loan program provided by the U.S. government. Graduate students may qualify for Unsubsidized loans which do not require a credit check and/or collateral

Grad PLUS Loan

The Graduate PLUS Loan allows graduate students to borrow up to the full cost of education minus other Financial Aid received. Apply on Studentaid.gov The PLUS loan requires a credit check that is valid for 180 days

TEP Program Funding

Goldent State Teacher Grant

Golden State Teacher Grant (GSTG) provides funding of up to $20,000 for the academic year split between Fall, Winter, Spring

Cal Grant Extension

Undergraduate Cal Grant A and B recipients who have been accepted and enrolled in TEP within 15 months of their last received Cal Grant payment may qualify to have their entitlement extended for a fifth year.

TEACH Grant Program

The Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education (TEACH) Grant Program provides up to $4,000 per year of grant aid to college students who plan to become teachers and who are committed to teaching in a Title I school in specific subject areas.

Other Resources

Federal Work Study

Work Study is a need-based form of Financial Aid that you earn through on- or off-campus employment and receive in the form of a paycheck.

Extramural Funding

For information about extramural funding , visit the Graduate Division Financial Support website (see next page)

Scholarship Universe

External Scholarships for Graduate Students can be found on ScholarshipUniverse found on Financial Aid Website under 'Scholarships'

Contacts

For more inquiries on how to pay for Graduate School please visit the Graduate Division Financial Support website or

Email: financial@graddiv.ucsb.edu

For specific questions relating to your department, please contact your department directly

If you are facing financial crisis or urgent financial need please contact the Financial Crisis Response Team:

To Contact the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships, visit the Financial Aid Website:

